These alternative work arrangements shall be governed in accordance with the terms detailed below. The parties agree to consult as required regarding the application and implementation of these provisions

(a) Reduced Work Week

All reduced work week arrangements shall be subject to operational requirements and the approval of the Employer and must be confirmed in writing to the employee prior to the commencement of such an arrangement.

All reduced work week arrangements shall last for twelve (12) months and employees wishing to renew such arrangements must make application in writing to the Employer one month prior to the date of renewal. The parties make no commitment that the reduced work week arrangement will be renewed.

The employee or the Employer may terminate any reduced work week arrangement during the term with thirty (30) days' notice.

position equally, on a renewable twelve (12) month basis. All job share arrangements shall be subject to the approval of the Employer and must be confirmed in writing to the employee prior to the commencement of such an arrangement.

All job share arrangements shall last for twelve (12) months and employees wishing to renew such arrangements must make application in writing to the Employer on or before the end of the eleventh (11th) month of the job share arrangement. The parties make no commitment that job share arrangements will be renewed.

Employees must be at the same salary group as the job they are to share and must have the qualifications and ability to perform the duties of the job they are to share.

The job left open as a result of the job sharing arrangement shall be advertised and filled in accordance with the provisions of the collective agreement.

Job sharing employees and all other transferred, promoted or acting shall return to their former positions upon expiration of the agreement.

The parties make no commitment to accumulate service related benefits without adjustments.

Where a party to a job share arrangement wishes to terminate the arrangement prior to the expiration date, the employee shall provide his/her job share partner, the City with as much advance notice as possible but not less than thirty (30) days' notice. The City may terminate any job share during the term on the basis of operation/service concerns with thirty (30) days' notice to the employees affected.

- (c) Employees on a reduced work week or job share shall be entitled to the terms and conditions of the main Collective Agreement except as modified below:

Leaves

All leave entitlements, except bereavement leave, shall be prorated to reflect the employee's weekly hours of work in relation to the normal full-time hours of work (e.g., an employee working four (4) days per week or 80% of the full-time hours, shall receive 80% of the respective vacation entitlement; i.e., four (4) days per entitled week).

Bereavement leave is not prorated and employees remain entitled to the number of days as described in Article 7 factored by their daily hours of work.

OMERS

The Employer and employee contributions are reduced to reflect the modified earnings of the employee. All other pension conditions are in accordance with the OMERS rules.

Insured Benefits

The Employer shall continue to share the cost of the benefit programs as described in Article 19. Long Term disability benefits, Life Insurance, and AD&D will be reduced to reflect the employee's modified earnings although all other benefits remain unchanged.

Statutory Holidays

Employees shall be paid 4.4% of their regular earnings in lieu of statutory holidays.

Overtime

Overtime shall be defined as the hours worked before or after a normal work week of a comparable full-time employee.

5.10.4 Telework

Telework is an alternate work arrangement where employees have approval to carry out some or all of their work duties away from their official workplace, on a regular basis, from a designated telework location (usually a home office).

Telework arrangements will be in accordance with the Employer's Telework Procedures, as amended from time to time, and a written telework agreement is required.

5.10.5 Reports - Alternative Work Arrangements

The Employer will provide an annual report in March of each year to the Union listing the names and personnel numbers of the employees who have been on an alternate work arrangement, in accordance with this agreement, in the previous calendar year. The report will also indicate the type of Alternate Work Arrangement the employees were on.

- (c) In all other cases, where the Employer intends to contract out work that would otherwise be bargaining unit work to a firm or private contractor instead of carrying out the work itself using its own employees, the Employer will provide the Union with two (2) months notice and all relevant and available information, specifications, costings and rationale concerning the proposed contracting out so as to allow the Union the opportunity to submit a detailed written proposal to the Director responsible for the work or services. Upon receipt, the Director will give due consideration to the Union's proposal and afford the Union an opportunity to discuss, explain or amend its proposal in response to questions or concerns of the Employer. Where the Union elects not to submit a proposal and so long as no breach of article 22.3 occurs, the Employer may contract out such work at its sole discretion.

Such paid time off shall not exceed thirty-two (32) days per year in total and individual usage shall not exceed one day per month unless mutually agreed by the parties. The effective date of the promotion will become the date for establishing the date of implementation of future salary increments.
 - (d) For employees holding two seasonal positions who are being promoted into a year-round position having a higher salary scale, the promotional formula in (c) above shall apply to the higher of the two seasonal salaries provided that the employee has completed one (1) season in the higher paying seasonal position.
 - (e) Under no circumstances will a promotion result in a salary that exceeds the maximum of the new salary range.

24.3 For employees hired before January 1, 2017

The normal effective date for the implementation of an employee's salary increment within a pay range, shall be the Annual (or semi-annual, where this is provided within the pay schedule) anniversary of the employee's appointment, subject to the provisions of 7.8 (c).

- 24.7 Wage employees working in Public Works and Services Department, Surface Operations Branch, shall have their substantive position determined through the Master Assignment Board Process. In this circumstance, the employee's increment date will not change and the employee shall receive the negotiated increases as well.

Generally, the parties acknowledge and agree that redundant employees' priority placement to vacancies relates to positions which become available and are equivalent or comparable in terms of compensation level. However, the parties further acknowledge and agree that there are exceptional cases where vacancies may arise at a higher compensation level for which the employee has the qualifications and ability actually required to perform the normal duties of the position within a period of up to four to six (4 – 6) weeks. In such cases, such employees shall be placed in these positions without competition but if within the ninety (90) day time frame, should the employee find the work unsuitable or the Employer find the employee unsuitable or incapable of performing the work of the position, the employee shall be entitled to further consideration for priority placement under Clause 25.2 (a) and such period of placement into the higher level position shall be treated as if it was a temporary assignment in accordance with the provisions of that clause.

(d) Retraining

If a vacancy exists for which the employee can be retrained by the Employer within a period of six (6) months, the Employer shall offer such retraining to the employee for the position. This option shall be subject to the agreement of the employee.

- (e) Should a redundant/surplus employee choose not to exercise his/her rights to Clauses 25.2, 25.3, 25.4 25.5 and 25.6, but instead choose to leave his employment, the employee shall be entitled to the provisions of Clause 25.9. Such election shall be made in writing within thirty (30) calendar days from the date of the notice of the redundancy and his/her termination of employment shall be effective two (2) weeks from the date of such election.

- 25.3 (a) If no placement is possible under Clause 25.2, and the Employer determines within a further period of three (3) months, that a vacancy exists for which the employee has the qualifications and ability actually required to perform the normal duties of the position such that they would be deemed to be "job ready" to perform the normal duties of the position within a familiarization period of four to six (4 - 6) weeks, then the Employer may place the employee in such vacancy, without competition for the four to six (4 – 6) week familiarization period, without the agreement of the employee.

At the end of the four to six (4 - 6) week familiarization period, should the employee demonstrate that the work is unsuitable or the Employer find the employee unsuitable or incapable of performing the work of the position, the employee shall be afforded the remaining rights or entitlements set out in this Article.

- (b) Should the employee refuse an assignment pursuant to this option, the Employer shall have no further obligation to provide any further options or entitlement under Article 25 and the employee shall be deemed to have quit or terminated their employment in accordance with the provisions of Article 10.5(a) of this Collective Agreement.

- 25.4 An employee not successful in obtaining a position in the manner set out in Clause 25.2 or 25.3 above, may be reassigned to another job including one which may be a lower classification/paygrade with the agreement of the employee. If the employee opts not to accept the reassignment he/she may utilize the provisions of Clause 25.6 or 25.9 as applicable.
- 25.5 Employees shall continue to receive their regular salary, exclusive of premiums, during the period of reassignment and/or retraining. However, upon entering the position as described in 25.2, 25.3 or 25.4 above, the employee will be slotted into the salary range of the position which he/she has newly entered. If the salary of the employee exceeds the maximum range of the position the employee enters, the employee will maintain his/her present salary, with half (1/2) of any future negotiated increases for a period of three years from placement into the position at which time the employee will no longer be entitled to any future negotiated increases until such time as the employee can be slotted into the salary range of the new position.
- 25.6 If an employee is not placed as per Clause 25.2, 25.3 or 25.4 above, the employee may exercise his/her seniority rights. A redundant employee who elects to bump shall be entitled to bump departmentally first and then bargaining unit wide into a position at an equal or lower classification/paygrade for which he/she has the qualifications and ability actually required to perform the normal duties of the position or may elect to take severance in accordance with Clause 25.9 below.

25.7 Rights of Displaced Employees

- (a) Employees who have been displaced as a result of employees exercising their seniority rights under Article 25.6 above, shall be placed into vacancies in accordance with Article 25.2 (a), (b) and (c) and 25.3 but such rights shall not exceed a total cumulative period of two (2) months from the date of displacement.
- (b) A displaced employee not successful in obtaining a position in the manner set out above in Clause 25.7 (a) may exercise his/her seniority bumping rights or take severance in accordance with clause 25.6 or 25.9, respectively.

25.8 Employees displaced or redundant in accordance with the provision of this Article do not have a right to recall.

25.9 Where a redundant or displaced employee chooses not to exercise his/her rights under the clauses above, or has not found or been placed into a position by exercising his/her rights, then the employee shall be entitled to the severance allowance as outlined below and any other applicable entitlements outlined in this Collective Agreement.

- (vii) Twenty-five (25) or more years of service - eighteen (18) months.

Payment shall be made at the rate of pay the employee was earning when the position became redundant or the employee was displaced.

It is agreed that the severance payments outlined in this Collective Agreement incorporates any pay in lieu of notice and/or severance pay provided under the Employment Standards Act.

*LETTER OF UNDERSTANDING #23

BETWEEN THE CITY OF OTTAWA

AND

OTTAWA-CARLETON PUBLIC EMPLOYEES UNION, LOCAL 503

Diversity and Inclusion Initiatives

It is the shared goal of the Parties to create substantive equality for Employment Equity designated groups (Aboriginal/Indigenous Peoples, Members of Visible Minorities, Persons with Disability, and Women) as defined under the Employment Equity Act, S.C. 1995, c.44 and increase representation of these designated Employment Equity groups at various job levels within the bargaining unit. The Parties agree to expand this commitment to 2SLGBTQQIA+ communities and immigrants/newcomers/refugees in Canada as evidence of gaps are identified. The Parties are committed to achieving an inclusive workforce that reflects the diversity of the population of Ottawa.

The parties agree that during the life of this collective agreement, they will form a joint committee to engage in meaningful discussions regarding the City's diversity and inclusion initiatives.

The parties recognize that the Employer will be implementing a Special Pilot Program under the guidelines of the Ontario Human Rights Code Sub-section 14(1), with the intent to identify and remove barriers to recruitment and staffing as to meet the goals stated above.

Where the Employer identifies positions within the bargaining unit which may fall under the Special Pilot Program and where changes to the Collective Agreement may be required for recruitment and staffing, the Employer will, on a position-by-position basis, seek Union concurrence to effect such change. In order for the Union to consider the request, the Employer will provide the Union with any relevant information and/or data informing the strategy to achieve the shared goals stated above.

Effective July 22, 2021, unless otherwise stated in this Letter of Understanding.
